Report on activities of EBSB

The Ek Bharat Shresta Bharat initiative was undertaken by Paradip College, Paradip during the academic session 2019-2020. The main objective of this program is to strengthen the bonds among the states of India by celebrating their diversity through promotion of cultural heritage. The program delivers this outstanding goal by engaging students, belonging to different states, in one platform to highlight the distinctive features of their states. The execution of its goal is achieved by pairing of different educational institutions belonging to different states of India. Our paired college is Symbiosis College of Arts and Commerce, Pune, Maharashtra.

On 29th February 2020 the EBSB club of Symbiosis College of Arts and Commerce, Pune, Maharashtra, visited Paradip College for a successful interaction between the students and teachers of both the states. They were welcomed cordially with a well-planned cultural extravaganza. An exquisite food festival, offering the best traditional dishes of Odia cuisine, was exclusively organized for them. During their stay the student volunteers, along with certain senior staff members of our club, took them for a short visit to few important places of Odisha.

The EBSB club of Symbiosis College, in collaboration of EBSB club of Paradip College organized a seminar on 15th June 2020 on "Saint-Literature of Maharashtra". The webinar was graced by the honorable speakers Mugdha Joshi and Dr Shirish Limaye, who spoke on the topic "Samarth Ramdas Swami" and "Sant Dnyaneshwar" respectively. In response to the demands of the webinar another day was selected, that is 20th June 2020, to provide a thought provoking lecture on "Jagannath Culture" to the students and teachers of both the clubs. Shri Ganeswar Patra, Head of the Department of English and co-ordinator of EBSB club, delivered this lecture and enthusiastically accentuated the uniqueness of Jangannath culture with parallel references to Odia culture, attire and food. On the same day Mrs Saswati Swagatika, Lecturer in Economics, gave a wonderful presentation on "Crisis Management in Odisha". Another collaborative webinar on "Sant Tukaram" was conducted on 23rd June 2020. The webinar was graced by Swami Buddhananda, as the Guest Speaker. On 25th July 2020, Symbiosis College and Paradip College jointly organized an Elocution competition for students of both the clubs through virtual medium.

A collaborative webinar was organized by EBSB club and YRC Wing of Paradip College on 21st June 2020 on the eve of Yoga Day Celebration. Miss Saswati Pattnaik, Lecturer in English, spoke on the topic, "Importance of Yoga in Practical Life". Mr Sujit Kumar Bhoi, Lecturer in Economics, delivered his lecture on the topic, "Yoga and Development of Mankind". On 28th August a quiz competition, on "Marathi Culture" was organized virtually for student members of EBSB club of Paradip College. In addition to these activities the EBSB club of Paradip College has celebrated "Swachata Pakhwara" in its campus. The club has also organized theme based creative competitions like "Jhoti" and "Poster- making", to promote cultural heritage of Odisha and to make students aware of different burning issues.
