

Report of the visit of Symbiosis College of Arts & Commerce, Pune to Paradip College, Paradip under Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) Scheme of MHRD Govt on India

Symbiosis College of Arts and Commerce, Pune visited Paradip College, Paradip on 29.02.2020 under EK Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) scheme of MHRD, Govt of India. The team consisted of 15 Members including four faculty members and 11 no of students. Among the faculty members were Dr. Sunayini Parchure, Vice-Principal & HOD, Dept of Economics, Symbiosis College, Dr Hilda David, Associate Professor, Deptt. of English, Mr. Anil Adagale RUSA & IQAC Co-ordinator & Associate Prof of English and Mrs Eera Khedkar , EBSB Co-ordinator, Symbiosis College of Arts & Commerce, Pune .

At the outset a formal welcome meeting was arranged . Dr Suprema Kanungo the Principal Paradip College, Paradip welcomed them, Mr Ganeswar Patra, Co-ordinator IQAC, RUSA & EBSB Club, Paradip College Paradip, co-ordinated the entire Programme and gave guest introduction. Mrs Saswati Swagatika, Lecturer in Economics and Members EBSB Club, Paradip College conducted the programme. Mr Bramahananda Biswal, Lect in Philosophy & Member EBSB Club, Paradip College extended vote of thanks to all.

After welcome meeting EBSB club of Symbiosis College conducted a Power Point presentation on history and culture of Maharashtra followed by Maharastrian dance, music food, literature and drama. Then the members of EBSB Club, Paradip College also exhibited culture of Odisha. Mrs Saswati Swagatika, Member EBSB, Club conducted a Power Point presentation on history, culture, dance, music education travel & tourism and cuisine of Odisha. The teacher as well as the students members of EBSB Club, Paradip presented a cultural programme followed by dance and song. Miss Sswati Pattnaik, lect in English & Member EBSB Club extended her active co-operation for the programme.

A food fest was organised on the occasion where typical odia food was showcased. Besides there was artistic exhibition of different traits of Odisha exhibition of different traits of Odisha culture highlighting, Raja festival, car festival, Makar Sankranti, Basumati Snana and many others to let the members of symbiosis college imbibe of the culture of Odisha. Lunch was arranged for all. All the members of staff of the college were present and extended co-operation.

As a result of the visit of Symbiosis College Pune, the students and teachers of our college were exposed to a right platform where there was cultural assimilation and coalesce of culture of odisha and Maharashtra. Sri Tusarkanta Pallai, a student member, EBSB club, Paradip extended vote of thanks.

On 1st March 2020, i.e Sunday , the team visited Paradip Port, Neheru Bunglaw to gather access and ideas about one of the major ports of Odisha contributing to economic growth.

At about 3' O clock the team was seen off.